A QUESTION ABOUT Brown's Iron Bitters ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thousands of times: "How can Brown's Iron Bitters cure every ailment?" Well, it doesn't. But it does cure any disease for which a reputable physician would prescribe it. It is a fact that it is the best restorative known to the profession, and inquiry of any leading chemical firm will substantiate the assertion that there are more preparations of iron than of any other substance used in medicine. This shows conclusively that iron is acknowledged to be the most important factor in medicine. The medical practice, it is believed, is a reasonable fact that prior to the discovery of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, no perfectly satisfactory iron combination had ever been found. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, however, does not cure in a minute. Like all other thorough medicines, it acts slowly. When taken by men the first symptom of benefit is renewed energy. The muscles then become firmer, the digestion improves, the bowels are active. In women the effect is usually more rapid and marked. The great basis of color to the skin, the skin clears up; healthy color comes to the cheeks; nervousness disappears; functional derangements become regular, and if a nursing mother, abundant sustenance is supplied for the child. Remember Brown's Iron Bitters is the ONLY iron medicine that is not indigestible. Physicians and Druggists recommend it. The Genuine has Trade Mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. TAKE NO OTHER.

THE PRESIDENT'S TRIPS.

HE WILL PROBABLY VISIT THE SOUTH AND THE WEST.

Various State Fairs to Be Visited—A Mammoth Invitation to St. Louis—Pacific Railroad Investigation—Commerce Commissioners—Washington Affairs.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The president and Mrs. Cleveland will probably make a series of trips through the south and west during the coming summer and autumn. On Saturday, when a number of gentlemen from Atlanta, representing the various commercial bodies of that city, called on the president, ex-Governor Bullock extended an invitation to the president to visit the south in the fall, about the time of the state fairs.
Mr. Cleveland said that he would not doubt avail himself of the opportunity, and if possible would make a trip through the south, which he had long contemplated doing.

An invitation from the citizens of St.
Louis, which is under the management of the St. Louis Post Dispatch, to visit that city in September, has already been the subject of much gossip at the White House, though the invitation, which will be signed by at least two hundred thousand persons, will not be formally presented for about two weeks yet.
The president and Mrs. Cleveland have each been informed of the enterprise of the Post Dispatch, and to their close friends have confided rather freely upon the subject. Mr.
Cleveland has expressed himself quite favorably, and is anxious to make a tour of the western states. If he concludes to go west he will extend the trip to the Pacific coast.
Mrs. Cleveland is quite enthusiastic over the proposition, and is said to have expressed herself strongly in urging the president to break over his rule and go west and south for at least a month.

Justifiable Killing.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Agent E. C. Osborne, of the Otos Indian agency, Indian Territory, under date of April 3, writes to the commissioner of Indian affairs detailing the killing of the farmer of the Indian reservation by himself on April 1. He states that the farmer E. M. Smith had made himself so objectionable that he discharged him at the instance of the clerk of the agency, whose life he had threatened. He, Osborne, then went to Smith in company with others to pay him his wages and to hear his defense, if he had any. Smith became violent, and after wounding the clerk in the arm, he advanced with cocked revolver upon the blacksmith of the agency and Agent Osborne, when the latter, in self-defense, as he states, shot Smith dead. The agent adds that he believes his action was entirely justifiable, and that by his timely shot he saved three lives. Both Osborne and Smith, the dead man, are from Tennessee, and are appointees of the present administration.

Pacific Railroad Investigation.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Under the fifth section of the recent act providing for an investigation of the Pacific railroads some of the roads have claimed that the entire sinking fund held by the treasury to their accounts should be deposited in first mortgage bonds.
Secretary Fairchild recently applied to the attorney general for a decision as to what authority this section confers upon the treasury for the investment in mortgage bonds.
The attorney general has rendered a decision that under the law the treasury may invest in first mortgage bonds any money now in the sinking fund uninvested or hereafter coming into it, but that funds already invested in government bonds cannot be converted into mortgage bonds.

Carlisle Contest Abandoned.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Nathaniel T.
Crutchfield, Speaker Carlisle's clerk, has arrived from Kentucky, where he has been with the speaker. He says that Toebe has abandoned his contest for Carlisle's seat.
Under the law he had ninety days after serving notice of contest in which to take evidence. The ninety days expired a few days ago, and with the mass of testimony he had taken, Toebe was only able to call into question five votes, and as he had a majority of 800 to overcome he gave up the task as hopeless. Speaker Carlisle will in a short time go on a visit to his sons at Wichita, Kan., where he expects to remain during most of the summer.

Commerce Commission.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Among the petitions received this morning by the commerce commission were those of the South Carolina and the Georgia Pacific railroad companies praying that the long and short haul section be not applied to their roads. The commission passed the greater part of the morning session in secret conference discussing the applications of the southern railroads and steamboat owners, but reached no determination up to 1:30 o'clock, when a recess was taken.

Indians Not Suffering.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The war department has no information that the Apache Indians at Fort Marion or Fort Pickens are suffering ill-treatment or being exposed to contagion. The Fort Pickens Indians are said to be well provided for in all respects, while those at Fort Marion are overcrowded and the propriety of removing all or part of them elsewhere is under consideration.

Governor Hill to Visit the President.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The invitation extended to Governor Hill, of New York, to visit the White House in January last, which was withdrawn on account of the death of Gen. Logan, has been renewed, and it is expected he will come as soon after the legislature adjourns as public business will permit.

A Bold Daylight Robbery.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 7.—A bold robbery was committed in Chatham township, Sangamon county, yesterday. A well dressed man with gentlemanly manners drove up to the farm of John Workman and represented himself as a land purchaser. Soon another stylish looking man drove up in a two-horse rig and introduced himself as an agent for the sale of agricultural implements. Workman started to show his visitors over the farm, when suddenly they seized him and took $5,000 from his person. Workman was about to start out to make a cattle purchase and the robbers evidently knew it. The thieves escaped.

RECORD OF FIRE LOSSES.

Boston Suffers From a $150,000 Blaze.
Great Damage Done Elsewhere.

Boston, April 7.—A fire started at 12:50 o'clock at 96 Milk street, on the second floor, occupied by William J. Wilson, bookbinder.
It spread rapidly to the third floor, occupied by O. J. Rand & Co., bookbinders, and the third floor, occupied by the Wright & Potter Printing company. The flames threatened to spread to the large building at the corner of Milk street and Postoffice square. Three alarms were rung in. The fire burned with such fierceness that the firemen were driven from the interior of the building, and some of them narrowly escaped injury. At 1 p. m. all attempts to fight the fire from within were abandoned, but a number of streams were kept on it from the street and the roofs of adjoining structures. The fire was extinguished at 2:15 p. m.

It is impossible yet to estimate the amount of loss. The Merchants' Mutual Accident association and Warren & Co.'s London packet office sustained no loss. The Globe estimates the loss at $150,000.

Fire in a Hotel.

BORDENTOWN, N. J., April 7.—A fire here last night damaged Davis' hotel and outhouses. Assistance was telegraphed for to Trenton but before they had started word was sent that the fire was under control. It is not believed the damage will exceed $10,000.

In Allegheny City.

PITTSBURGH, April 7.—The extensive slaughter house, stable and ice house of Henr/Kreiling, on Charles street, Allegheny City, was destroyed by fire at early hour this morning. Loss, $18,000; insurance, $10,000.

In a Wagon Factory.

NEW YORK, April 7.—A fire broke out this morning in the big wagon factory of Jacob Sebastian & Co., Nos. 217 to 233 East Forty-third street. Loss $30,000; insured.

Cotton Fire.

GALVESTON, Tex., April 7.—Fire last night originating in the cotton sample room of D.
Catterache & Co., caused $40,000 damage.
Insurance $35,000.

A Small Michigan Blaze.

THREE RIVERS, Mich., April 7.—The Aspinwall Potato Planter and Digger works at this place burned last night. Loss $12,000; insurance, $7,000.

DISASTROUS EXPLOSION.

Six Miners Instantly Killed and Thirteen Suffocated By Gas.

VINTA, I. T., April 7.—An explosion occurred at Savannah, I. T., in coal shaft No.
2, yesterday, by which six miners were instantly killed. A rescuing party soon went down, and thirteen of these men were suffocated by the gas, making a total of nineteen deaths. These mines were worked almost exclusively by foreigners, most of them being Italians. The body of gas fired must have been immense, and the torrent of flames forced from the mouth of the shaft was over a hundred feet in height, and illuminated the whole country like an immense flash of lightning. It was followed with such a concussion as to startle every one for miles around, and people in the immediate vicinity were severely shocked. The engine house and lifting works, a structure over a hundred feet long and two stories high, was blown into splinters by the current driven out of the shaft, and in a few minutes was enveloped in flames. From the character of the building, and being literally saturated with oil, it was not possible to save anything from the flames.

The killed were: Miles Jarrétt, Dave Jones, Hugh Dooley, William Barnes, Charley Parsons, Bert French.

Those suffocated were: James Ward, James McGinnis, Fred Bartz, Thomas Navia, Mike Kelly, Thomas Daniels, George Hall, Peter Renaldi, William Hudson.

A cutting has been driven through into one of the upper lifts or entries, and it is hoped that they will be able to reach the bodies of the unfortunate. The fans have been started in No. 2 by attaching the boiler of the switching locomotives to the steam pipes. Everything possible is being done to enable the men to reach the bottom of the shaft.

Shot a Thief in His Store.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., April 7.—The proprietor of Hayes' book store shot a thief dead last night in his store. Mr. Hayes became conscious of the fact a few days ago that somebody was making away with a portion of his stock almost nightly. Last night he secreted himself in the store and awaited the coming of the culprit. About 1 o'clock in the morning the latter appeared. Hayes turned up the gas and confronted the thief, who fired a pistol at him. Hayes returned the fire, and the thief dropped dead in his tracks. The thief was an employe of the Globe printing office.

Chicago's Striking Carpenters.

CHICAGO, April 7.—At the carpenters' headquarters this morning it was claimed that 250 of the employers were willing to accede to the strikers' demands. The union now has over two thousand men on commuties making the round of the city to see to it that no union men are at work. It was understood at the council's headquarters that the bosses are to have a meeting, and over the mechanics are jubilant, as they claim to be satisfied that the employers' association is pretty certain to surrender to the workmen.

Sentenced to Sing Sing.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., April 7.—John Travis, alias Jack Talbot, pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary this morning and was sentenced to ten years in Sing Sing prison. At the time of Travis' arrest there was found in his trunk bonds of the value of $700,000 belonging to Mr. Charles P. Miller, of Philadelphia.
These were ordered by the court to be handed over to the owner.

A Knock-Out in Two Rounds.

DULUTH, Minn., April 7.—In a fight in the Duluth theater last night, between Charles Gleason, of Sioux City, and Jack Davis, of Philadelphia, ten rounds or a knock-out, Gleason was an easy winner in two rounds, knocking Davis down the first time and repeating the operation a dozen times, closing with a clean knock-out.

Marie Engle Succeeds.

LONDON, April 7.—Marie Engle, the new American prima donna, appeared last night as "Zerlina" in "Don Giovanni." She was recalled and encored several times.

A SURPRISING VICTORY.

THE CHICAGO REPUBLICANS SO RE- GARD THEIR CITY TICKET.

No One Prepared for the Astonishing Majority of Over Twenty-Eight Thousand.
But One Labor Candidate Elected—The Small Prohibition Vote—Comments.

CHICAGO, April 7.—The result of the election was a surprising victory for the Roche ticket. It had become plain to almost every one that the Republicans, backed by the best element of the Democratic party, would have an easy victory over the Socialistic Labor ticket, but scarcely any one was prepared for the astonishing majority of over 28,000.
The figures, as reported by the official returns for mayor, treasurer, city attorney and city clerk are as follows: John A.
Roche, Republican, 51,491; Robert L. Nelson, Labor, 23,481; C. Herman Plautz, Republican, 51,407; Frank A. Stauber, Labor, 23,514; Hempstead Washburne, Republican, 51,723; Jesse Cox, Labor, 23,144; D. W. Nickerson, Republican, 51,119; John M. Dollard, Labor, 23,818.

The Prohibition vote was so small as to be scarcely worth consideration. Its only purpose in the present campaign has been to make Roche and his friends more anxious to talk about his plurality instead of his majority.

The only candidate of the Labor party elected is E. D. Connor, the now Fifth ward alderman.

The proposition to annex a portion of the town of Jefferson is carried by a handsome vote. The vote for Col. Tuthill for judge of the circuit court, is also incomplete, but it is in keeping with the grand majorities of his companions on the ticket.

The complete vote in Hyde Park, Lake, Cicero, Jefferson, Lake View and other towns adjacent to the city simply serves to enlarge the victory. It is a difficult matter with so many polling places to rouse any public excitement, and it was not until evening that people appeared in the streets and down town hotels in search of election bulletins. Immediately after dusk, when it became known that the Labor party was hopelessly defeated, cheers rent the air, bonfires were built, Nevins' band serenaded the newspaper offices, and later in the evening Battery D's big gun went booming over the lake.
The Inter-Ocean this morning says: "The overwhelming majority cast for Mr. Roche is an expression of disapproval of further essays toward class government. It is not evidence of public hostility to labor or organizations, though it is an unmistakable protest against the prostitution of labor organization to the desires of 'obliarchs' who choose to call themselves Socialists."

The Herald says: "The so-called United Labor party must soon become aware of one thing. If it is to hope for political life and usefulness it must speak in tones which will not be misunderstood against Anarchism and all those forms of Socialism which are repugnant to the spirit of American freedom. Failing in this its career will be a short one, and its capacity to punish enemies or reward friends will be small."

The Times says: "The people of Chicago have given their answer, in no uncertain tones, to the brazen demand of the Hay Market banditti for a surrender of the municipal governments into their bloodstained hands. The candidate of the red flag barbarians for the mayoralty has been defeated by a majority approximating 28,000, and his associates on the city and town tickets have suffered a like righteous fate. The result is a magnificent triumph for the intelligence and conscience of Chicago."

Women Voting in Kansas.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 7.—The streets Tuesday had something the appearance of a circus day. It was the first test of the new law giving the suffrage to women, and the gentler sex turned out en masse to exercise their privilege. White women and colored ones were on a footing of glorious equality and elbowed each other in the manner of eager customers at a "bargain" sale. Very little electioneering was done by the ladies, although some of the less diffident got in a word now and then for their favorite candidate. The women began to vote early in the morning and in about every ward the first vote cast was by a feminine hand. In Leavenworth it was the most exciting election since the war.

Not Much of a Mystery.

BOSTON, April 7.—The two trunks received at the Fitchburg railway station here Monday which were taken in charge by the police because of a peculiar smell as if of decayed flesh which was supposed to come from them, were called for yesterday by their owners. On being opened they were found to contain only clothing and mason's tools and the owners were permitted to remove them.

Signing With the New Yorks.

NEW YORK, April 7.—After all that was said about Welch, Keefe and Deasy refusing to sign with the New Yorks, it seems strange to find that the trio affixed their signatures to the contracts without any compulsion on the part of the club. O'Rourke, too, was believed to be opposed to signing, but he also walked up to the captain's office and settled without any trouble.

The Result in Michigan.

DETROIT, Mich., April 7.—The latest returns of the vote on the Prohibition amendment give 6,000 majority against its adoption.
The official returns are slow about coming in and the Prohibitionists are claiming the state by a handsome majority to-day, but their claim is unfounded. It now looks as if 5,000 will be the figure by which the amendment was defeated.

OUT WITH HIS ARCHBISHOP.

Father O'Leary Champions the Knights of Labor, and Gets Into Trouble.

ST. LOUIS, April 7.—Rev. Father C. F.
O'Leary, ex-editor of the St. Louis Catholic World, and until recently priest of the Catholic church at Webster, Groves, a suburban town, is in open warfare against Archbishop Kendrick. O'Leary has been a warm defender of the Knights of Labor for several years, and took such a warm interest in behalf of the railroad strikers at De Sota last spring that he was transferred to Webster Groves, and his removal from the latter place last month was due to the same cause, his parish being split into two bitter factions —one demanding his removal.

According to his own statement he went to the archbishop to obtain a letter of recommendation, to be used on a little traveling tour he intended to make the coming summer, and received instead an exeat, the archbishop desiring, he says, to get him out of his diocese and jurisdiction, and get rid of him entirely. They separated, as O'Leary expressed it, with the bridges burned between them. In an interview this afternoon he said:

"Before the archbishop went to the Baltimore council I urged him to do all he could to encourage the Knights of Labor, but he afterwards had a two hour's conference with the late Manager Hoxie, who, of course, made him believe that the knights ought to be suppressed, and the archbishop went to Baltimore and voted almost alone against the order."

Father O'Leary gained some notoriety by testifying before the congressional committee on the strike that he thought the use of dynamite to right wrongs might be justifiable in some cases. O'Leary shows a letter from Master Workman Powderly offering him a position on the paper run by the knights.

A Novel Petition.

CARLISLE, Pa., April 7.—Yesterday was licensing day in Cumberland county, and strong petitions for and against the licenses were presented everywhere. The temperance people won all along the line. In West Fair View, however, they got a rebuff for there a petition signed by women only was presented to W. F. Sadler, presiding judge of the court of quarter sessions of Cumberland county, as follows: "We, the unsigned ladies, all of full age, residing in West Fair View, Cumberland county, would respectfully represent that we believe that a licensed hotel is necessary in our town, and we request your honor to grant a license to Mr. Breckenridge. He is a worthy man, and fit to keep a licensed house. We feel sure that if a license is granted and our husbands can obtain a drink of liquor when desired they will not bring it home in large quantities, as now, nor go away to Harrisburg for their liquor, and remain from home."

De Lesseps' Son on a Journey.

CHICAGO, April 7.—Charles De Lesseps, of Paris, France, vice president and secretary of the Suez and Panama Canal company, and son of the builder of the canal, was in the city yesterday. He came direct from New Orleans, where he has been visiting relatives. In the evening he left for New York and will sail for Havre April 9. Mr.
De Lesseps, in speaking of the canal now in construction, said that it will be completed in 1889. All the installations are in, and 10,000 men are at work. He said further, if they could obtain 30,000 men they could employ them. The men are in excellent health and are doing good work. The sanitary condition is good.

Cranky Women.

WARSAW, N. Y., April 7.—Miss Affia A.
Bartlett, who manages a kindergarten here, announced recently in her school that she would read a communication for the children by Happy Bob, the young salvationist now under sentence of death here for the murder of a young man of whom he was jealous. Several of the children have been removed from the school in consequence, and others will leave if the letter is read. A number of women in the town have been acting very foolishly over this good looking young murderer.

A Minister Mobbed.

TOLEDO, April 7.—At Utah, an old town near this city, once famous for its lumber trade, Rev. Mr. Carter, a Free Methodist minister, has been for some weeks back conducting revival meetings at the house of a man named La Bundy. His doctrines were obnoxious to a large portion of the community, and a mob gathered around the preacher and his band, poured upon them a shower of rotten eggs and drove the ministers and his followers out of the place.

Winter Still in Michigan.

HANCOCK, Mich., April 7.—Decidedly the worst snow storm of the season is just over.
The snow is thirty-four inches deep and drifted badly. The Hancock & Calumet railroad is blocked. The Marquette train was delayed several hours, and it took the Mineral Range train thirteen hours to go thirteen miles, from Calumet to Hancock.
The first time for the season all traffic on the street was stopped.

Carl Schurz Not Offered an Office.

NEW YORK, April 7.—Carl Schurz, who is still in bed with a broken leg, sustained by his recent fall on an icy sidewalk, told a reporter that he had not heard of any appointment tendered, or to be tendered to him by the president. This is in denial of the story from Washington that President Cleveland had asked Mr. Schurz to be the Republican member of the Pacific Railway Investigating committee.

Strike Settled and Work Commenced.

BOSTON, April 7.—Mead, Mason & Company, of Newton Center, effected a settlement with their striking employees yesterday and the men returned to work to-day. The stone masons felt very much elated over this settlement. The Boston strikers say that they will undoubtedly call upon all union men to sustain them in the present strike for the reason that if this contractor succeeds in obtaining ten hours' labor from his employees all other contractors will have to abandon the nine-hour day.

Death in Her Sweetheart's Revolver.

NASHVILLE, April 7.—Miss Charlie Sharp of Shelbyville, who was to have been married to A. H. Ruth to-morrow, was accidentally shot and killed last night while playfully handling a revolver which had dropped from Mr. Ruth's pocket.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION.

THE DAILY BULLETIN will be delivered to any part of the city at 6 cents a week, or one year for $3.

THE DAILY BULLETIN to any postoffice in the United States, postage prepaid, at twenty-five cents per month or three dollars per year.

THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 7, 1887.

THE Democrats of the Nicholas Senatorial and Legislative districts have nominated Dr. B. F. Reynolds, of Nicholas, for Senator, and Hon. E. Keaton, of Robertson, for Representative.

Out of the four thousand emigrants who left New York for the West on the 4th of this month, we doubt whether many of them will land in this State, and yet they can not find a better State in the Union. Kentucky needs some one in the East to tell emigrants of our resources.

The fight over the postoffice at Mt. Sterling is ended at last by the appointment of Wm. H. Wilkerson, who was recommended by Congressman Taulbee. It remains to be seen whether the unsuccessful candidates will submit gracefully, or will seize the first opportunity and square accounts with "Pres."

SENATOR BECK has written a friend in this city that he will not countenance any disaffection in the ranks of the Democracy here on his account, or for any other reason. He believes in standing true to the nominee, and says, were he here, Mr. Gooding would have his vote and his support. That's the sort of talk we like to hear.

SENATOR HARRIS, Democratic candidate for Governor, spoke at Paris the other day, and a dispatch from there says "he made many converts," and that Bourbon County, heretofore doubtful, may now be set down for him. If Bourbon should instruct against Gen. Buckner, Brother Champ, we fear, never would forgive the farmer statesman from Madison County.

The bill granting a charter to the Charleston, Cincinnati and Chicago Railroad has passed the Virginia House of Delegates. This is the road which a company of capitalists propose to build through the iron and coal region of Eastern Kentucky, making a short route to the sea coast at Charleston, S. C. It will prove an important factor in developing a rich country.

It is not generally known that Kentucky is penetrated by more miles of navigable rivers than any other State in the Union, yet such is the fact. The Covington Commonwealth alludes to this subject and says "the half has not been told of Kentucky's wealth in all the elements of industrial and commercial prosperity." Our great want, however, is, and has been for years, railroads running into the coal, iron and timber regions of the State.

United We Stand—Divided We Fall.

A united Democracy once polled 1,000 majority in Mason County, and might do it, and doubtless would, to-day only for the disaffection and wrangling in the ranks. Our district Congressman gone glimmering solely for this cause. Just now some of our leading Democrats are trying to justify a kick against the Hon. A. P. Gooding, because he declines to pledge himself to vote for the Hon. Jas. B. Beck for U. S. Senator. It is with that we want to deal in this article. Mr. Gooding says that he is willing to represent the action of Democrats at a primary poll to be opened at the August election, and to pay the expense attending said poll. I have also been informed by reliable authority that he says he is sentimentally a Beck man, (though I do not remember hearing him say so), but he desires to represent the people in that as in every thing else, and not to be the candidate of a minority, or of any individuals in an individual sense. If this is Mr. Gooding's position, and I feel safe to vouch that it is, what more can any fair-minded man ask? Have I any right to ask him to let me dictate his vote, if the majority of Mason County Democrats are for some one else? Certainly not, and, if I have not, five hundred Democrats have not, except they be the majority. Now I am personally in favor of Beck for the Senate as long as he is willing and able to go, as the matter now stands, and believe him to be the peer of any statesman that America has yet produced, except the immortal Clay, whose life proved true, what he said ("he would rather be right than to be president"). But I have digressed. It has been claimed by some that Gooding was brought out by an anti-Beck party, because a good many of that class supported him. Well, if that were true they certainly were in the majority, and Gooding wouldn't be treating them very well to pledge himself to Beck, but that is not true, for I don't believe that in my precinct, Minerva, there is one anti-Beck man. So it seems plain that to pledge himself to Beck would be an injustice both to himself and his constituents, except it be done in the manner proposed by him. We would suggest to the Gooding opponents either to make a tenable position of the Beck matter, or take a stand on something else, if oppose him they will, or better still open the primary poll in August and abide its action as Gooding declares that he will do.

FAIR PLAY.

THE JERSEY LILY.

THE REASON WHY MRS. LANGTRY WENT ON THE STAGE.

Why She Separated from Her Husband. Her Friendship for Freddy Gebhard. A Laudable Desire to Get Rich—Future Prospects.

Mr. Charles Mendum, who for two years was the private and intimate business manager of Mrs. Langtry, does not believe that the Lily will marry Mr. Fred Gebhard for some time to come.

"When Mrs. Langtry has all the money in her own right and name that she wants," said Mr. Mendum, "then she may marry."

"Her whole idea is to become independently well off and possess a fortune, she has made by her own exertions. Rich as Fred Gebhard is, she would not be satisfied to divide his money. What she wants is her own. She has but two great dreams in life—one is getting old and the other is to be poor and old. She often said to me, and it was evidently, therefore, an idea that stuck to her: 'I want a half a million securely invested so that I cannot lose it. Then I shall leave the stage and devote myself to myself. Until then nothing shall swerve me to this side or that.'"

Mr. Mendum thinks the Lily now has from $50,000 to $400,000 put aside—all of it pretty nearly in American mortgages. At first she sent her money to England for investment—about $50,000 of it. After that she got an American lawyer and began her American investments, which, all of them, bring her from 5 to 6 per cent, fully double the interest she would get in England.

"I was in the parlor car," went on Mr. Mendum, "with my wife the whole time that Fred Gebhard traveled in it. Mrs. Langtry and he would meet at meals, but generally in the daytime she would retire to her own drawing room. Sometimes, when she was in good humor we would all play cards together for small stakes. The fact is, she soon found the value of Gebhard as an advertisement, and humored him accordingly. Love him, no. There was never the slightest indication of even interest in him so far as I could see. You can always leave those things to a woman, and my wife was of precisely the same opinion as I was."

"He was always very polite and deferential, and never attempted the slightest familiarity. He never gave her a present during the whole time he traveled with us, but every night he sent her a bouquet. It did not matter where we were, he always managed to have the bouquet on hand. Sometimes he had to have them sent from other cities. These bouquets usually decorated the breakfast table the next morning."

"How about the likelihood of a divorce?" asked the reporter.

"There was no likelihood when I was with her, and she evidently appeared satisfied with the mutually agreed upon separation that had taken place between herself and her husband. He had promised never to come near her. On one occasion it was reported that she was very ill and she showed a great deal of emotion—a surprising demonstration on the part of so absolutely cold a woman. It is this coldness that settles in my mind the story that she has fallen in love with Fred Gebhard. It is quite possible, however, that some understanding has been arrived at about a divorce. She has not seen her husband for several years and their separation has lasted now for more than five. I suppose, therefore, a divorce might be obtained without trouble. It is quite certain that the old affair is off forever."

"I remember Mrs. Langtry telling me the facts of this separation and they are rather curious. The Langtrys had been in London society for several years, and while money had been going out absolutely nothing offered itself whereby something would come in. At last Mrs. Langtry became desperate. Her social successes had been very great in London, but these very successes cost a great deal of money. At length it came to the time when only a few hundred pounds were left. Mr. Langtry had been doing nothing and she had been urging him to find some business that would give him a maintenance. She got a sum from her father, and with what she already had secured enough to buy an interest in the phonograph, then a great invention and generally believed to be practical. With the money she had purchased an interest in the instrument for several of the counties, and Mr. Langtry went down to Bradford, I think it was, to work it. She waited for one, two and three weeks to hear from him, but not a word came."

"Finally she determined on a trip down to Bradford to see what had become of the phonograph and Mr. Langtry. She got there, and to her amazement found that not a thing had been done, that the phonograph had not even been started on its career, and that all the money Mr. Langtry had with him was gone with his boon companions. Bitter recriminations ensued and they parted forever. The following week Mrs. Langtry accepted an engagement from the Kendalls to play at $20 a week. She crowded the Haymarket theatre. Then they wanted her to go on a tour through the country at the same price, but she saw that if she could draw in London she could draw still better in the provinces, so she went on her own hook. She played to the biggest money ever known in the large centers. She was anxious, however, to get to America, and wanted badly an American manager. Somebody suggested Henry E. Abbey, and by pure luck he fell into a tremendous success, but one which he worked up beautifully."

"Do you believe Mrs. Langtry will marry Gebhard?"

"I don't know. Who can tell the mind of a woman? But if Fred Gebhard gets her he will get one of the finest women alive,"—New York Journal.

OVER THE RIO GRANDE.

The Old Adobe Town of Paso Del Norte. Scenes Along the Railroad.

Crossing the iron bridge over the Rio Grande the first place is Paso Del Norte, a Mexican town of about 6,000 inhabitants. It is an old adobe town, embowered in trees and vines. As we passed rapidly through its dusty streets and glided by its gay houses surrounded by high adobe walls, beautiful gardens, rich with flowers and trees of magnificent foliage, were to be seen on either side. Here and there a picturesque group of natives, clad in cotton shirts and pants, their heads shaded by straw sombreros of huge dimensions, were at work in the fields or idling beneath the shade of magnificent trees. Again they were to be seen tramping behind the patient burro, or riding that useful animal through the dusty streets. It is a comical sight to see a little, dusky, long eared animal carrying a native whose feet are hanging within a foot or so of mother earth; or pecking a load of wood or hay so large that one can only see a head decorated with a pair of long ears, four feet in rapid motion and a tail wagging as if it expressed naught but pleasure and contentment.

In the doors and windows now and then we caught a glimpse of a senorita, who favored us with a glance from a pair of sparkling eyes. Little bare legged urchins seemed to be plentiful, and as they ran out in the dust to view the train or stood clinging timidly to their mother's skirts we could not help wondering what their ideas of the iron horse were and what changes American capital and energy would make in their land ere they passed the line that divides childhood and manhood. Paso Del Norte lies in a beautiful valley and the surrounding mountains standing with the shadows of the setting sun upon them, enhanced the scene by their picturesque. In a few moments we arrived at the Mexican Central station, a fine adobe structure with an open court, in the center of which were magnificent tropical plants and flowers. There are ample verandas on all sides, on which open officers, waiting rooms and a restaurant. After partaking of a good supper we attended to our baggage. The custom officers examined it and placed a card on every article, which permitted it to enter the republic. They were very courteous and by no means prying in their examination.

Leaving Paso Del Norte we pass through the country south, along valleys surrounded by low mountain ranges and through the rich pastures of San Juan, Encinales and Sauz. Each little station pours forth its crowd of dusky inhabitants, and although we hear the click of the telegraph and see the well known sign of Wells-Fargo, we look in vain for the enterprising American. Vendors of fruit, candies, milk, chocolate and bread cry their goods upon each side of us wherever we made a stoppage. The country is a pastoral one on an enormous scale. Many thousands of cattle are grazing near the track and their trails run in all directions. As there are no fences we often hear the sharp toot of the whistle, and as we crane our necks out of the window we see cattle and other animals scampering away from the train. Night approaching we withdrew from the windows, and after whiling away a few hours card playing, singing, etc., we retired to our comfortable berths.—Cor. San Francisco Chronicle.

Natural Gas.

The public meeting at the Council Chamber last evening to perfect the organization of a company to bore for natural gas in or near this city was called to order by County Clerk Ball. On motion of H. C. Barkley, Mr. Ball was made Chairman. C. S. Leach and John C. Adamson were named for Secretary, but Mr. Adamson declined and Mr. Leach was elected.

The Chair read the articles of incorporation of the proposed company—capital stock $50,000, in shares of $10 each, operations to be commenced when $5,000 of the stock has been taken, and then followed with a list of those who had subscribed.

Mr. Ball stated the organizers meant business. What was needed was money. Brother Davis, of the Republican, gave the audience a plain talk on the necessity of prompt action. He did not mince words. Suggestions were made by others, and explanations given to some in regard to the subscriptions. A committee composed of Colonel Frank S. Owens, C. S. Leach, and James H. Rogers was finally appointed to solicit stock, and report at a meeting next Monday evening. One hundred and fifty-five shares had been subscribed when the meeting adjourned.

Our thanks are due and are hereby tendered the Daily Republican for the three-column advertisement which it gives the BULLETIN today.

Mr. Perrine's check for this balance was mailed to Mr. Hewitt last evening.

Bliss—Hill.

The residence of L. Hill, at the southwest corner of Fourth and Limestone streets, was the scene of a happy wedding at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The contracting parties were his daughter, Miss Lida M. Hill, and Aaron S. Bliss. The ceremony was witnessed only by the relatives and a few intimate friends of the family. Rev. D. A. Beardsley, pastor of the M. E. Church, South, officiated, and in a brief ceremony, spoke the words that made the twain one. The groom is a citizen of Cincinnati, where he has been engaged in business for several years. He was formerly a resident of this city, and has quite a number of friends and relatives here and in this vicinity, who well wish him and his lovely bride all the happiness imaginable in their wedded life. The bride is the next oldest daughter of L. Hill, one of Maysville's leading grocers. The friends of the couple here and at Cincinnati will join the BULLETIN in congratulations over the happy event. After the ceremony, an elegant lunch was served. The bridal party left on the Bonanza later for Cincinnati.

DR. T. C. MARTIN, son of Dr. G. W. Martin, arrived from Cleveland last evening. He has resigned the position of House Physician at the Huron Street Hospital, which he held the past year, and will leave, after a few days rest, for New York to attend a post-graduate course of lectures in one of the colleges at that place.

The Cincinnati Enquirer thus speaks of one of Maysville's talented ladies: "Miss Bessie Miller Oton will appear in her charming costume recital at the Odeon next Tuesday evening. When she last filled an engagement in New York City the names of Louise Kellogg and Henry Dixey appeared on the programme. Mr. Dixey, who will be in Cincinnati, has already written to reserve a box for him at the entertainment."

AN alarm of fire at the residence of Hon. John B. Clarke, in Brooksville, last Tuesday, caused considerable excitement for awhile. About the same time a hanging lamp at the residence of T. G. Gilmore, formerly of this city, set fire to his house. Mrs. Gilmore very courageously took the lamp down and out into the street, and the flames were soon smothered. Richard Smarr's residence also caught fire, but by prompt assistance the several incipient blazes were soon extinguished, and the damage proved slight all around.

Robert McClelland, night watchman at Pogue's distillery, met with a serious accident last night. While a companion, named Pearce, was cleaning a revolver, the cylinder rolled off a table. One of the cartridges exploded, and the ball, a 32-calibre, struck McClelland in the right cheek, entering about one inch. Drs. Holton and Son and Dr. Strode removed the missile.

ACROSS THE OCEAN CABLE

SECOND READING OF THE IRISH CRIMES ACT AMENDMENT.

Coercion Will Be Decided on Tuesday Week—Prince Alexander Again Declines the Bulgarian Throne—Switzerland Sick of the Anarchists—Foreign Notes.

LONDON, April 7.—The second reading of the Irish crimes act amendment bill was formally moved in the house of commons yesterday afternoon by Mr. Balfour, chief secretary for Ireland.

The house of commons is practically taking a week's holiday, so many members are pairing. The government insists that debate on the Irish criminal law amendment bill shall proceed, but will postpone the division on the bill till the 19th inst.

The Conservative whips retain enough members to keep their majority secure, in order to prevent a surprise.

In the event of the coercion bill becoming a law a number of Radical members of parliament promise to join the Parnellites and go to Ireland to defy the act.

A Radical demonstration against the coercion bill will be held at Hyde Park next Monday.

Will Not Take Part.

BERLIN, April 7.—The governments of Germany and Austria will imitate the action of the government of Russia in declining to take part in the Paris exhibition of 1889. The Kreuz Zeitung and National Zeitung, in editorials referring to the Paris exhibition, both urge that it would be an act of impropriety and of damage to the monarchies of Europe to do anything tending to glorify the revolution.

Irish Singled Out.

LONDON, April 7.—Doyle, the invincible, has been released on a ticket-of-leave. He complains bitterly of the treatment he received while in confinement, and alleges that the prison authorities single out Irish convicts for especially hard punishment.

Again Declined.

LONDON, April 7.—Prince Alexander, of Battenberg, has again declined to be elected as ruler of Bulgaria.

Queen Victoria has arrived at Aix-les-Bains from Cannes. Her majesty is much fatigued after the journey.

The Swiss Aroused.

GENEVA, April 7.—The Swiss government has resolved to act vigorously against the Socialists and Anarchists, whose recent activity is thought to be calculated to disturb the peace of the state.

BRITISH WARSHIPS AT CARACAS.

Diplomatic Relations With Venezuela Severed—A Steamer Sent for Troops.

HAVANA, April 7.—News just received by the Spanish steamer Villaverde from Venezuela reports stirring times there. Three British men-of-war are in the harbor of Puerto Cabello, the port of Caracas, the Venezuelan capital. The British minister has left the capital and is on board one of the warships, diplomatic relations between the British and Venezuelan governments having been severed. The complications are due to the imprisonment of English sailors and citizens in 1883 without just cause, intermixed with the question of boundaries between British Guiana and Venezuela.

Sir William Robertson, British minister at Caracas, demanded satisfaction and the release of the soldiers and passengers of the English vessels, Henrietta and Josephine, and later demanded compensation from Venezuela, but without result. In October last the English government demanded an instant reply. The matter was again brought before the government of Venezuela, but as no satisfaction could be obtained diplomatic relations were severed. A steamer has been dispatched to one of the British islands for troops. The Venezuelans consider a dire crisis at hand. They had refused to yield when the steamer Villaverde sailed.

Effect of the Interstate Law.

BOSTON, April 7.—A Portland special to the Herald says: Although not an interstate road, the Maine Central carries so much interstate freight that its managers issued a new schedule of rates for the entire line special freight and passenger rates have been abrogated. Under the long and short haul clause of the law the old rates at points where there is water competition lower formerly than the rates for short distances have been advanced fifty per cent. or more. The management has made a general restitution of charges in first and second class freight in some cases six cents per one hundred pounds. General Freight Agent Eater says: In arranging the new rates we have the ideal and it would be as creditable to try to make the law obnoxious as it would be to evade it. We have endeavored to make an equitable arrangement of our rate under its provisions. A special to the Herald from Bangor, says: The Maine Central new freight schedule causes great dissatisfaction here. Our merchants talk of combining to establish steamboat lines to Boston and New York, and a paper is in circulation among heavy receivers and shippers, the signers of which agree to transact no business with the Maine Central.

Survivors of the Brig Johanna. NEW YORK, April 7.—The steamer Victoria, which arrived yesterday from Barcelona, brought the captain and crew of nine men of the brig Johanna, which foundered at sea after being out ten days from Havana for New York. The crew had been at the pumps constantly for two days before the Johanna sank, and were in a wretched condition when picked up.

Wills Probated.

NEW YORK, April 7.—The will of Mary B. Peltou, sister of the late Samuel J. Tilden, was admitted to probate to-day. The testatrix bequeaths all her property to her granddaughter, Laura A. Pelt, wife of William A. Hazard. The will of William H. Travers was admitted to probate to-day. The estate, real and personal, is left to his wife and children.

Failure in Men's Furnishing Goods.

NEW YORK, April 7.—Union Adams, men's furnishing goods, at 1123 Broadway, made an assignment to Justice O. Woods, with preferences amounting to $9,475. The attorney for the assignee says that the liabilities of the firm are $40,000, and that the assets will amount, all told, to about $18,000.

Shot Himself While Temporarily Insane.

PHILADELPHIA, April 7.—In the case of Mrs. Mary L. Buckingham, who was found dead in bed yesterday morning by her husband who was sleeping by her side, the coroner's jury returned a verdict of suicide by shooting while temporarily insane.

In the Haddock murder trial at Sioux City, Iowa, introduced witnesses who swore that Bismarck, the man who says he saw Haddock kill Haddock, was not at the scene of the tragedy at all, but in his room at the boarding house.

England Wants Tortugas Island.

HAVANA, April 7.—Great Britain has demanded $1,000,000 of Hayti as a settlement in full of old demands. Failing its immediate payment she wants Tortugas island, which lies off the north coast of Hayti. The island is about thirty miles long and is well wooded and watered. It is inhabited by a small fishing population. To a first-class power like England the island would be very valuable. The Haytians were badly frightened when the British fleet, under Admiral Lyon, recently steamed into the harbor of Port-au-Prince. They thought the British had come to take possession of all their islands. The settlement of the claims has been entrusted to a special commissioner, Mr. Clement Hill, who is at present on board the war ship Canada, awaiting final adjustment.

Counterfeiters Run In.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 7.—Three young men named J. M. and A. M. Peebles and W. M. Horn were arrested in Franklin county yesterday charged with counterfeiting. That entire section of country has for months been flooded with finely molded silver dollars, and the special detectives at work on the case were baffled in their attempt to capture the counterfeiters until yesterday. Horn is reported as being an old criminal, and $520 in spurious coin was found in his room.

Knew Nothing of It.

NEW YORK, April 7.—Mr. George Gould was asked by a reporter if it was true that his father intended to erect buildings on a large scale for the accommodation of the employees of the Missouri Pacific railroad in the southern suburbs of St. Louis. George replied that he had not heard of such an intention, and if it were true he would probably know it.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Quotations of the Money, Stock, Produce and Cattle Market for April 6.

NEW YORK—Money 5/16 per cent. Exchange steady. Government steady.

Currency sizes, 125/4 bid; four coupons, 125/4; four-and-nights, 109/4 bid.

The stock market opened active at about last night's prices but soon weakened and at 10:30 prices were down 3/4 to 1/2. In the next hour Union Pacific was quite actively bought and advanced sharply. The rest of the list advanced fractionally in sympathy, and at 11 o'clock prices were up 1/4 to 1/2 per cent. This was more than lost in the hour to noon under a raid by the bears. Prices are now weak and feverish and 1/2 to 3/4 per cent. below the best of the morning.
